SUMMER 2012

GEORGETOWN WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

Alumni Outstanding Service Awards

During the 51st annual Alumni Outstanding Service Awards in May, the GW Alumni Association honored five graduates who are working to advance the mission of the university through their volunteer efforts. The 2012 honorees are (left to right): John Holmblad, MS '80, CERT '02; Jeremy Gosbee, BA '98, MBA '02; Christopher Barley, MD '93; Christine Coleman, BA '91; and Edward "Skip" Gnehm, BA '66, MA '68. Gnehm, an Elliott School professor, was the recipient of the Jane Lingo Alumni Outstanding Service Award, which commemorates Jane Lingo, BA '46, an alumna, staff member, and friend who was a lifelong participant in the GW family.
